What you will know

What is weather?

What is a season?

What is the difference between weather and a season?

WEATHER

Weather is the condition of the air at a particular time and place.

Weather changes from day to day.

Some days are hot.

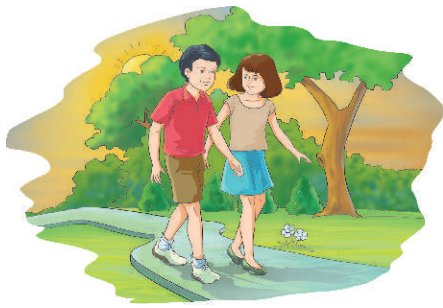

Some days are cold.

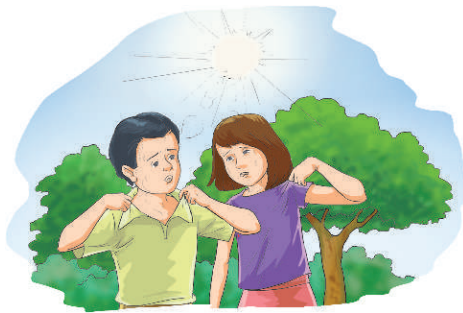

Some days are rainy.

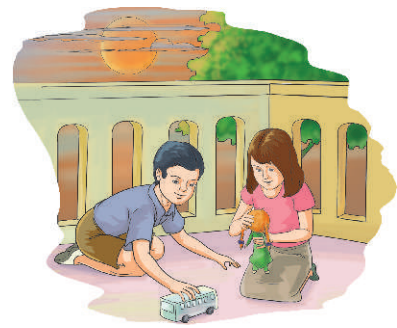

Within a day also, the weather may change from time to time.

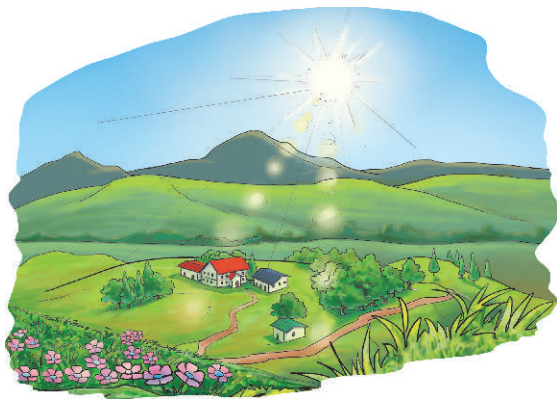

Morning is cool
and pleasant.

Noon is hot.

Evening is again
cool.

Sunny days

On a sunny day, the sun shines brightly.

The weather is hot.

Cloudy days

On a cloudy day, the sky is covered with clouds.

The weather is pleasant.

Rainy days

On some days, it rains a lot.

The sun remains hidden behind the clouds.

We can hear thunder and sometimes can see a rainbow.

Cold days

Some days are very cold.
We like to stay indoors.
In some places, it snows.

Windy days

On some days, strong winds blow.
We see plants and branches of trees shaking badly.
We also see leaves and dust
flying around.

BRAINSTORM

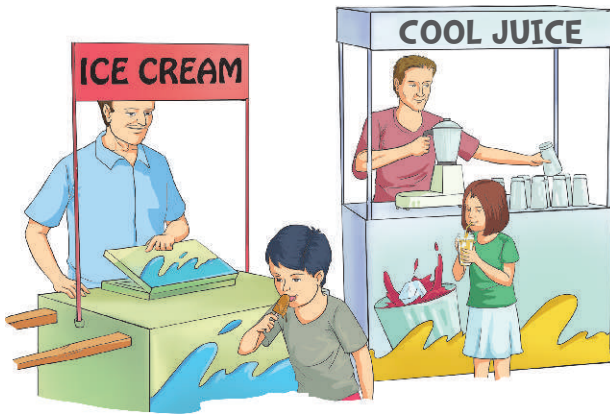

Guess and write the kind of day.

1. Children are playing with paper boats.
2. People are sweating badly.
3. The sky is dark.
4. Dry leaves and bits of paper are flying around.
5. Children are having fun by making snowballs.

SEASONS

When one type of weather stays for a very long period, we call it a season.
Seasons affect our daily life.
The clothes we wear, the things we eat and drink, all depend on the season.

There are five different seasons in a year.

Summer

It is very hot in summer.

We use fans, coolers, etc. to stay cool.

We wear light cotton clothes.

We like to eat ice creams and drink cold juice.

The rains

The rainy season is also called monsoon.

Most days are cloudy and rainy.

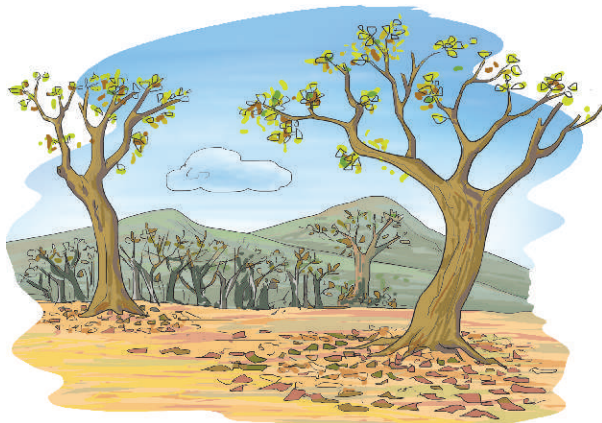

We use umbrellas and wear raincoats.

Autumn

In autumn, the weather is neither too hot nor too cold.

Most of the trees shed their leaves.

Winter

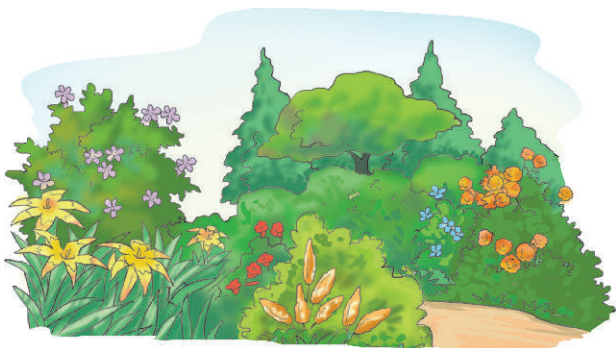

Days are very cold in winter.

We use heaters, quilts and blankets to keep ourselves warm.

We wear woollen clothes.

We like to have hot soup, tea, etc.

Spring

The weather is very pleasant in spring.
Beautiful flowers bloom all around.
Days are neither very hot nor very cold.

DISCUSS WITH FRIENDS

Which is your most favourite season and why? Also ask your friends about their favourite season.
